St. Petersburg College

Student Support Services Program (SSS)

APPLICATION FOR PARTICIPATION

Summer of Success (SOS) Program

The Student Support Services Program is a selective admissions program which assists qualified applicants to be successful students at St. Petersburg College (SPC). Those who are selected are entitled to the program's services free of charge; these include such services as tutoring, career exploration activities, counseling, study skills development and cultural enrichment. All SPC students are encouraged to apply; however, application to the Student Support Services Program does not guarantee acceptance into the program.
